For Sale: My Bénéteau Oceanis 321

I am selling my Oceanis 321, a compact iteration of the renowned Beneteau shipyard. This model, designed by Groupe Finot and built starting from 1995, is known for its combination of performance and comfort. With its three double cabins and furling sails, the Oceanis 321 is a versatile boat, ideal for family or friends' cruises.

Features and Equipment

My Oceanis 321 is a Sober, practical and versatile boat. It is equipped with:

- Furling sails for easy handling
- Navigation electronics including GPS, depth sounder, and autopilot
- Well-maintained Volvo Penta engine
- Equipped kitchen with oven and gas stove

This model will require some improvements to fully enjoy its potential, including:

- Replacement of worn-out sails
- Updating the vintage electronics
- Installation of a new charger

History of the Beneteau Shipyard

The Beneteau shipyard was founded in 1884 and has become one of the world leaders in pleasure boat construction. Over the years, Beneteau has evolved and innovated, offering increasingly performant and comfortable models. The shipyard is renowned for the quality of its constructions and its craftsmanship.

History of the Oceanis 321 Model

The Oceanis 321 was introduced in 1995 and quickly gained great success thanks to its modern design and performance. This model was built in France and was appreciated for its versatility and comfort. With more than 800 units produced, the Oceanis 321 has become a classic of coastal and offshore cruising.

Why the Oceanis 321 is Interesting to Buy?

The Oceanis 321 is an interesting boat to buy for several reasons:

- Its modern design and performance make it a versatile boat, ideal for family or friends' cruises.
- With its three double cabins, it offers exceptional comfort for a boat of this size.
- Its complete navigation electronics and well-maintained engine make it a boat ready to sail.
- Although requiring some improvements, the Oceanis 321 has enormous potential and can become an exceptional boat with a little investment.
