The Sun Odyssey 43 is equipped with a spacious and well-protected cockpit, offering excellent visibility and easy access to the winches. The interior is designed to maximize living space, with a large main cabin, two double cabins, and a convertible third cabin. The galley is well-equipped, and the saloon is bright thanks to large windows.

The construction of the Sun Odyssey 43 is solid, with a polyester hull reinforced with fiberglass and a balsa-core sandwich deck. The boat is also equipped with numerous safety and comfort features, such as an autopilot, GPS, depth sounder, and refrigerator.

This sailboat is perfect for those seeking a comfortable and efficient boat, whether for short trips or longer cruises. Its balanced design and robust construction make it a reliable choice for all sailing enthusiasts.
