Owner's Comments

The Fairline 33 Targa is a cruiser that perfectly illustrates British know-how in nautical construction. This model is part of the famous Targa range from Fairline, recognized for its sporting performance, its elegant design and its comfort on board.

With its clean lines and its racy profile, the Fairline 33 Targa immediately attracts attention. Its exterior design is both modern and timeless, which allows it to remain a popular model on the used boats market, even years after its commissioning. The spacious rear bridge and the large bath platform offer an excellent space to relax or for nautical activities, making it an ideal boat for cruises with family or friends.

The 33 Targa is not content to be aesthetic; It also offers remarkable performance. Its behavior at sea is reliable, with good maneuverability, which makes it pleasant to drive, whether for fast outings or quiet cruises.

The interior of the Fairline 33 Targa is designed to maximize space and comfort. The main cabin is bright and well appointed, with high quality materials. The equipment on board is designed for the comfort of passengers, with a functional kitchen, comfortable beds, and a living space that allows you to fully enjoy the moments on board.

In summary, the Fairline 33 Targa is a versatile cruiser that combines style, performance and comfort. It is an ideal choice for those looking for a quality boat, capable of providing thrills on water while offering a luxurious frame to relax. Whether for fast getaways or prolonged cruises, this model remains a reference in its category.

This Fairline 33 Targa is a second hand. Winter under hangar 6 months a year.
