Owner's Comments

Information from the owner: This very charming wooden sloop was built by the Dutch shipyard Meeusen in the Netherlands, based on plans reportedly drawn by the American actor Humphrey Bogart himself, who was inspired by the sailboat he owned at the time and wanted an exact replica, but scaled down to a maximum of 10 meters. Only two examples were built. This one is meticulously and regularly maintained by its current owner. The boat is equipped for coastal navigation and was refitted with a new 30 HP Yanmar engine in 2023.

Limitation of liability : XBOAT presents the details of the boat as supplied to us by the owner.
